

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

CALENDAR AND STUD BOOK:
A RECORD OF
DOG SHOWS AND FIELD TRIALS
FOR THE YEAR 1874.

EDITED AND COMPILED BY
FRANK PEARCE,
(At the Request of the Kennel Club).

VOLUME II.

LONDON: PUBLISHED FOR THE KENNEL CLUB, AT THE
"FIELD" OFFICE, 346, STRAND.
1875.

PREFACE.

IT is with no little satisfaction that I contemplate the completion of the Second Volume of the Kennel Club Calendar and Stud Book, as, from the favourable remarks of the principal sporting papers, and the letters which have reached us, not only from all parts of the country, but also from America and the Continent, I may, I think, fairly presume that the first publication of the Kennel Club has, to a great extent, filled up a blank space in canine literature. Before commencing the present work I wrote several letters in the Field and Bell's Life soliciting suggestions from breeders and exhibitors with a view to learning the opinion of the public, and I have carefully considered the answers received, and taken advantage of the hints they contained, so I hope that this edition will, in some respects, be found better for reference and improved in minor details, though the old form has been strictly preserved. I have also given a short list of errata in Vol. I., but I am thankful to say that mistakes are far from numerous, and not of much importance.

The chief innovation is the introduction of some dogs which have not won prizes at dog shows, or even been exhibited at all. It seemed to be the wish of many breeders that those gentlemen who did not send their dogs to shows should not be entirely excluded, and so this alteration has been made, but the pedigree and name of each dog proposed to be registered, with its owner's name and address, were first submitted to a Committee of the Kennel Club for approval, and all worthless animals were rejected. I will also add that the number of dog shows has been increased, and a record of several shows, such as Norwich, Darlington, Wolverhampton, and Hull, which were not in the first book, will be found in this.

FRANK PEARCE.

CLUB RULES.

1. The Club shall be called the Kennel Club; it shall endeavour in every way to promote the general improvement of dogs, dog shows, and dog trials.

2. The Club shall consist of not more than one hundred members—exclusive of all honorary members—to be increased from time to time as the members of the Club shall in general meeting decide.

3. It shall be under the management and direction of the committee appointed as hereinafter provided.

4. The election of members is vested solely in the committee, and shall be made by ballot, three members of the committee to be a quorum at such ballot, and one black ball to exclude.

5. Candidates must be proposed by one member of the Club and seconded by another; the candidate's name, rank, residence, and profession or occupation—if any—must be duly inserted in the book kept for that purpose by the secretary.

6. The entrance money on admission to the Club shall be five guineas, and the annual subscription shall be five guineas, payable in advance on the 1st of January in each year.

7. The committee shall consist of fifteen members.

8. There shall be an annual general meeting of the Club, held in Birmingham, if possible, during the week of the annual exhibition; and at the said meeting the one-third of the committee who have been longest in office shall retire. All retiring members of the committee shall be eligible for re-election.

9. The committee shall have power to elect honorary members without admission fee or subscription at their discretion.

10. Any member violating the rules and regulations of the Club for the time being in force, shall be liable to be expelled by the committee; and any members of the Club who shall be proved to the satisfaction of the committee to have in any way misconducted himself in connection with dogs or dog shows, or to have in any way acted in opposition to the fundamental rules and principles upon which the club has been established, or in any other manner which would make it undesirable that he should continue to be a member, shall be requested to retire from the Club; and if a resolution to that effect shall be carried by three-fourths of the committee present at the meeting, duly summoned to consider the case, the member so requested to retire shall thenceforth cease to be a member of the club as if he had resigned in the usual course, and his subscription for the current year shall be returned to him.

11. No member of the Club shall, under any circumstances, knowingly, either enter or exhibit a dog, or dogs, at any competition under a false name, age, pedigree, breeder, or description.

12. The committee, at their first meeting that shall be held after the annual general meeting in each year, shall elect a chairman from their own body, who shall, if present, take the chair at all meetings of the committee during the ensuing year; and at all meetings of the committee, in case of the numbers being equal, the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote, in addition to his own vote.

13. The committee shall have power to appoint sub-committees for any special object, and to delegate to such sub-committee the functions and powers of the committee relating thereto.

14. If the name of any member shall be officially published as a bankrupt, or insolvent debtor, or an outlaw, he shall ipso facto cease to be a member of the Club, and shall forfeit all right and claim upon the Club and its property; such person may, however, be re-admitted to the Club by the committee at their discretion.

15. No member shall take away from the Club House, upon any pretence whatsoever, any newspaper, pamphlet, book, or other article, the property of the Club.

16. These rules shall be printed, and a copy of them, together with a list of the committee and members, shall be sent to every member.

CODE OF RULES

For the Guidance of Dog Shows : adopted by the Kennel Club, 1874.

1. Every person who wishes to exhibit at any show held under the Kennel Club Rules, must at the time of entry clearly identify by name and age (if known) the dog he intends to exhibit, and the name of the sire and dam (if known) must be given, unless the dog has been entered with his name and pedigree in the Kennel Club Calendar, in which case it will be sufficient to mention him by his name only, and in cases where the pedigree of a dog is not known he shall be entered at each show as "pedigree unknown," unless his name has been duly entered in the annual number of the Kennel Club Calendar.

2. If the name of a dog which has won a prize has been changed, it is necessary in entering the said dog to give his old as well as his new name every time he is exhibited, until the change has been duly registered in the annual number of the Kennel Calendar; and if his name be changed again, all his names must be repeated for a like period.

3. If a dog shall be entered without being clearly identified as before directed, by Rules 1 and 2, he shall forfeit any prize that may have been awarded him, and if the omission be detected in time, he shall not be allowed to compete, and shall forfeit all entrance fees and subscriptions.

4. The Committee or authorities of any show may reserve to themselves the right of refusing any entries that they may think fit to exclude; and no person who has been proved to the satisfaction of the committee of the Kennel Club to have misconducted himself in any way in connection with dogs, dog shows, or dog trials, will be allowed to compete at any show that is held under the Kennel Club Rules.

5. No dog shall be qualified to compete or entitled to receive a prize, if awarded, who is suffering from mange, or any other form of contagious disease.

6. No person, except the duly qualified and appointed veterinary inspector, shall decide whether a dog is or is not suffering from mange. The veterinary inspector shall give his opinion to the secretary or committee of the show in writing, and shall do so before the close of the show.

7. A dog that has been exhibited, or has won a prize in a class exclusively for puppies under twelve months old, is not thereby excluded from being exhibited in a class where previous prize winners are not allowed to compete.

8. In estimating the number of prizes a dog has won, with reference to whether it should compete in a champion class or not, the number of prizes won shall be calculated up to the morning of the Show, and not merely up to the date of entry for the same.

9. An objection to a dog must be made to the committee or secretary of the show at any time within seven days from the first day of the show; it must be in writing, and the objector must at the same time lodge a sum of £1 in the hands of the committee or secretary, which deposit, shall, if the objection is proved to be frivolous, be forfeited.

CODE OF RULES

FOR THE GUIDANCE OF FIELD TRIALS OF SPORTING DOGS, FRAMED BY THE KENNEL CLUB, 1874.

1. Election of Judges.—The judge or judges shall be elected by the committee of the meeting, and their names shall be announced simultaneously with the meeting. When a judge, from ill-health or any other unexpected cause, is prevented attending a meeting, or during a meeting, finishing it, the committee of the meeting shall have the power of deciding what is to be done.

2. Description of Entry.—Every subscriber to a stake must name his dog at or before the draw, and must give (if known) the name of the sire and dam of the dog entered. The secretary shall publish on the card the names of those who are subscribers, but do not comply with these conditions. These nominations shall not be drawn, but must be paid for. Any dog whose pedigree, marks, or colour, shall be proved not to correspond with the entry given, shall be disqualified, and the whole of his stakes or winnings forfeited.

3. Alteration of Name.—If any subscriber shall enter a dog by a different name from that in which it shall last have run or been exhibited, without giving notice to the secretary of the alteration at the time of entry, such dog shall be disqualified. The secretary shall, if the conditions of the rule be complied with, enter on the card the late and present name of such dog.

4. Nominations.—Any subscriber taking an entry in a stake, and not prefixing the word "names" to a dog which is not his own property, shall forfeit that dog's chance of a stake. He shall likewise be compelled to deliver in writing to the secretary of the meeting, the name of the bonâ fide owner of the dog named by him; and this communication shall be produced should any dispute arise in the matter.

5. Defaulters.—No person shall be allowed to enter or run a dog in his own or any other person's name who is a defaulter for either entries or stakes, in field trials, dog shows, racing, or coursing meetings.

6. Power to Refuse Entries.—The committee or stewards of any meeting may reserve to themselves the right of refusing any entries that they may think fit to exclude; and no person who has been proved to the satisfaction of the committee to have misconducted himself in any way in connection with dogs, dog shows, or dog trials, will be allowed to compete in any trials that may be held under the Kennel Club Rules.

7. The stakes shall be run in the order they are given in the programme, unless the whole of the competitors, or their representatives, in the various stakes may agree otherwise—in which case the order may be changed, with the consent of the stewards or committee.

8. If two dogs are of the same colour, a red or white collar must be placed on one of them, to correspond with the colour on the card.

9. An owner, his keeper, or deputy, may hunt a dog, but it must be one or the other; and, when once the dogs are down, an owner must not interfere with his dog if he has deputed another person to hunt him.

10. The person hunting a dog may speak, whistle, and work him by hand as he thinks proper; but he can be called to order by the judges for making any unnecessary noise, and if he persists in doing, so they can order the dog to be taken up, and he will be out of the stake. An opponent's dog may not be purposely interfered with or excited, or an appeal can be made to the judges; and if the opponent's dog points game, the other dog is not to be drawn across him to take the point, but if not backing of his own accord, he must be brought round behind the other dog.

11. Objections.—An objection to a dog must be made to the stewards or committee of the meeting at any time before the stakes are paid over, upon the objector lodging a sum of £5 in the hands of the stewards, committee, or the secretary, which shall be forfeited if the objection prove frivolous. The owner of the dog objected to shall be compelled to deposit equally the sum of £5, and to prove the correctness of his entry. All expenses in consequence of the objection to fall upon the party against whom the decision may ultimately be given. Should an objection be made which cannot at the time be substantiated or disproved, the dog may be allowed to run under protest; but should the objection be afterwards substantiated and the winnings have been paid over, the owner or nominator of the dog which may thus be disqualified, shall return the money or prize, or shall be declared a defaulter.

FIELD TRIALS OF 1874;

Reports from the FIELD NEWSPAPER, slightly abridged, but otherwise unaltered.

DEVON AND CORNWALL.

HELD NEAR PLYMOUTH.

Judges.—Mr. S. E. Shirley, M.P., and Col. Russell.

SETTERS.—Wednesday, April 15.

PUPPIES' STAKES, at 3l. 3s. each, with a 5l. cup added by the proprietors of Bell's Life, for dogs or bitches whelped in 1873; first prize, cup and 10l. 10s.; second, 5l. 5s.

Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's r Sybil , 11 mos.	} beat	{ Mr. T. Webber's lem. w Fred , 1 yr.
Mr. E. Bishop's bk w t Bloom , 1 yr. 2 mos.
		{ Mr. F. C. Lowe's bk w tan Romp , 9 mos.
Mr. R. Purcell Llewellyn's bk w t Druid , 1 yr., a bye.

II.

Mr. E. Bishop's Bloom and Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's Sybil divided.

After trying three fields blank, Sybil found some birds behind a knoll out of sight of the crowd, and Fred backed her steadily. In the next Sybil made a false point, drawing up prettily till she discovered her mistake. On a piece of bare ground a good point was made by the dog, well backed by the bitch, and both dropping to the wing; a hare got up between them, both behaving very well indeed. After some few blank fields, Sybil found nicely in a piece of seeds, when the flag went up for her, but there was very little between her and the dog. Bloom and Romp were thrown off in the same piece of seeds, the best lying we had yet seen, but, nevertheless, Romp ran up birds without owning them. This she repeated in the next field, a bare fallow, Bloom finding another brace well, but not backed by Romp. Mr. Lowe's bitch next found a brace of birds, but was not steady on her points, and, working her stern merrily, pushed them up at ten or twelve yards, Bloom taking no notice of her.

Again this mistake was made in the next stretch, Romp evidently not being in the humour for a steady display of point. At the end of half an hour the flag went up for Bloom, who was then put down with Druid to run the bye. The dog began in a slovenly style, but in the next field settled down to some beautiful work. Bloom here found a brace just a second before the dog, who, on the upper ground and in front of her, also owned the scent, both standing as steadily as possible. Soon after this, in a small piece of seeds, the black found again, Druid backing her steadily. By this time Druid's pace had come down considerably, while Bloom's had mended in proportion; so that, after a couple more fields, in which nothing was done, the dog died away to nothing, the flag going up for Bloom. This left in Bloom and Sybil, but the black, having had a long trial, while Sybil had rested all the time, an interval was allowed, during which the first brace in the next stake were put down. After these had been tried, and luncheon had been disposed of, the stake was divided between Sybil and Bloom at the desire of their respective owners.

MOUNT EDGECUMBE STAKES, at 5*l.* 5*s.* each, with 10*l.* cup, given by the Kennel Club, for all-aged dogs or bitches, each entry comprising a brace belonging to the same owner; first prize, cup and 10*l.* 10*s.*, second, 5*l.* 5*s.*

Mr. Barclay Field's bk w Rose, 3 yrs., and bk w Daisy, 2 yrs. 1

Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's lem. w Leda and Laura, both 1 yr.

9 mos. 2

Mr. T. Webley's r Don and bl tan Bell, both aged 0

Leda and Laura opened on a rough fallow, in which Laura soon found, but could not road out her birds very well, and left them to make another cast, after which she stood again, but a second time missed them, and, on being held on, flushed them badly. After luncheon they were again down for half an hour, but did nothing.

Soon after two o'clock Mr. Barclay Field's brace were thrown off. After some fields drawn blank Rose found, but the birds got up wild. She soon found again, Daisy backing her on a bare piece of fallow. They were then taken up, and Don went down with Bell, the dog soon finding on some thin wheat, but not standing in good style, and both slow as tops. After half an hour they were taken up, and the decision postponed till after the Maker Stakes, if time permitted another trial.

Afterwards Laura and Leda were down on some good wheat, when Laura potted up a brace of birds, neither of them having the faintest idea of making out a body scent. The judges, however, could not make up their minds, and put the braces down again and again, until at last the flag went up for the favourites.

MAKER STAKES, at 3*l.* 3*s.* with a 5*l.* cup added, for dogs or bitches; first prize, cup and 10*l.* 10*s.*; second 5*l.* 5*s.*

Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's r Mar-	} beat	{ Mr. T. Webley's lem. w Bell ,
vel , 2 yrs. 11 mos.....
Mr. Barclay Field's bk w	} "	{ Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's lem.
Rose , 3 yrs.....

Mr. Webley's lem. w Don, aged (a bye).

II.

1st, Mr. Barclay Field's Rose.2nd, Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's Laura.

Marvel and Bell displayed a great disparity in pace, the dog going very fast and in good form; he flushed a brace, however, in his second field, but down wind, and also made a false point, but nevertheless the flag soon went up for Marvel—how or why we could not make out, as he did nothing but flush and point false, while Bell, though slow, had made no mistake. Laura and Rose had a race for pace up a hedge side, the latter going very fast, and at once finding in grand style, Laura not backing naturally, but stopping at Mr. Buckell's order. Rose soon made another point, when the flag went up in her favour. Marvel then went down with Don, who had the bye; the red dog immediately flushed a brace in some good seeds, and in the next (a piece of capital wheat) ran right up wind into another, Don doing ditto in a few seconds; Marvel flushed birds lying close in some rape. The judges then put Rose first and Laura second.

Thursday.

POINTER PUPPIES STAKES, at 3l. 3s. each, with a 5l. cup given by Spratt's Biscuit Company, for dogs and bitches whelped in 1873; first prize, cup and 6l. 6s.; second 3l. 3s.

Mr. S. Price's liv. w Mike , 11 } mos.	beat	{ Mr. Majendie's Belle , 11 mo. (drawn.)
Mr. Whitehouse's lem. w Don- caster , 1 yr.....		{ Mr. Brackenbury's Florence , 10 mos. (drawn).

II.

1st, Mr. S. Price's Mike.2nd, Mr. Whitehouse's Doncaster.

Mike commenced badly, pushing up a brace of birds in his first beat from over-eagerness. His owner's voice, however, had the desired effect, for the dog almost immediately made a very pretty point, and was well backed by the lemon and white, the display on both sides being as good as any we had seen, both dropping nicely to wing and shot. We then moved half a mile or so to a fresh piece of fallow, where each pegged his birds separately. Mike soon found another brace, Doncaster not backing him; but it was doubtful whether he saw him, and this was afterwards borne out, as he afterwards backed him well. They were taken up, and, both the bitches being drawn from different causes, the award was finally given as above.

TREGANTLE STAKES, at 1l. 1s. each, with 5l. cup added, for setter dogs or bitches, owners resident in Devon or Cornwall; first prize, cup and 2l. 2s., second 1l. 1s.

Mr. J. Webber's bk tan Kate , } 1 yr. 1m.....	beat	{ Capt. Denham Shilson's r Pat , 3 yr. 3 mo.
Capt. De Burgho Hodge's r w Duke , 3 years (a bye with Kate).

II.

Mr. J. Webber's Kats and Capt. De Burgho Hodge's Duke divided

Kate and Pat began by chasing two separate hares out of sight. After a short trial Kate found a brace nicely, Pat passing her, and putting them up, thereby cutting his throat effectually. Kate was then put down with Duke, who had the bye, and at once found, the dog backing; each then made a false point. After a change of ground the bitch found a single bird, Duke not backing, but, passing her and catching the scent, he stood firmly enough. A hare next got up out of sight of Duke, and was well chased by Kate. At last the judges decided to divide the stake between Kate and Duke, the bitch's good points being neutralised by her unsteadiness at fur.

ANTONY STAKES, at 5*l.* 5*s.* each, with a 10*l.* cup added, for pointer dogs or bitches, each entry comprising a brace belonging to the same owner; first, cup and 10*l.* 10*s.*, second 5*l.* 5*s.*

Mr. S. Price's liv. w Bang , 4 yrs., and liv. w Mike , 11 mo. }	against	{ Mr. Barclay Field's liv. w Dick , and liv. w Mab , 2 yrs.
Mr. J. H. Whitehouse's lem. w Pax and Beau , both 3 yrs 2 mos.		{ Mr. W. Lort's lem. w Admiral Rous , 2 yrs. and lem. w Lill .

II.

1st, Mr. S. Price's Bang and Mike.

2nd, Mr. Barclay Field's Dick and Mab.

After Dick and Mab had made two or three false points, Dick found a brace under a hedge, but left his point, which was then taken up by Mab; Dick, not relying on her nose, went in and pushed up the birds in the most jealous manner; both went short and crippled from rheumatism, and the bitch from a bite in addition. In a beautiful piece of rape both dogs made a succession of false points, backing each other on the slightest excuse; Mab here found a bird, but left her point, not being able to make out her game, which got up behind her. The whole performance was most discreditable, the only excuse to be made for such well-known good performers being on the score of their rheumatic condition and want of nose consequent on ill-health.

After an hour spent in this way over some beautiful ground (seeds, wheat, and rape), they were taken up, and Mr. S. Price's dogs were put down together. With only one or two trifling mistakes (in setting a lark and flushing down wind), this brace went on beating field after field of seeds and strong wheat, the judges being apparently too fond of looking at so good a brace to part with them easily. Point after point was made by each in turn, the old one having slightly the better of his son both in pace and nose. Mike's roading was also wonderfully good for a puppy, and, according to our judgment, fully half an hour and a lot of excellent ground might have been saved. At the end of an hour they were taken up, and Mr. Whitehouse held up Pax and Beau. The latter quickly got a point, but the birds would not lie, and rose twenty yards in her front. He soon, however, made a fine point, and drew up to his game well. Pax did not do nearly so well, flushing several brace of birds, but at last standing steadily enough, and well backed by his brother, who, however, flushed a bird almost immediately. At the end of half an hour they were taken up, having had very inferior ground for their trial; and Mr. Lort began with Admiral Rous and Lill, the old bitch, as usual, going off merrily, and soon getting a point. The Admiral was jealous, and took the next point from her, but afterwards they behaved well enough, the bitch getting two points under banks. These also were somewhat hastily disposed of at the end of half an hour, and there being no ground near at hand the judges at once placed Mr. Price's brace first, and Mr. B. Field's second.

Friday.

THE PENTILLIE STAKES, with a 5*l.* cup added for pointers, single dogs or bitches, open to the world, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first prize 10*l.* 10*s.* and cup; second 5*l.* 5*s.*

Mr. Whitehouse's Beau , 3 yrs. } 2 mos.	beat	{ Mr. Wippell's lem. and w Wag , 2 yrs. 1 mo.
Mr. B. Field's Dick , 2 yrs.	against	{ Mr. S. D. Hine's l. and w Dan , 1 yr. 11 mos.
Mr. W. Lort's l. and w Lill , } 5 yrs.	"	{ Mr. W. Whitehouse's l. and w Pax , 3 yrs. 2 mos.

Lill and Pax divided.

Mr. Wippell's Wag and Mr. Whitehouse's Beau were the first brace. The former flushed birds and pheasants, and broke fence; Beau worked well, drew well, and the flag went up for Beau. Mr. Field's Dick and Mr. Hine's Dan: the former was out of form, and the latter was unsteady, and did not drop to wing or shot. The next brace down were Mr. Lort's Lill and Mr. Whitehouse's Pax, and, although upon bad ground, they did some very pretty work, Lill making two grand points upon dry fallow, and behaving thoroughly well. Pax had the advantage in pace, and the flag went up for him, the judges awarding him first prize, and requiring Lill and Beau to go down for second. The owner of Beau eventually gave Mr. Lort two guineas to divide the stakes.

THE PORT ELIOT STAKES, with a 10*l.* cup added for braces, all-aged dogs or bitches, each entry to comprise a brace belonging to the same owner in Devon or Cornwall, 2*l.* 2*s.* each.

Mr. S. Price's l. and w Bang , } 1 yr. 1 mo., and Mike , 11 mos. }	beat	{ Mr. W. Coryton's l. and w Kate and Duchess , 1 yr. 10 mos.
---	------	---

Mr. Price's Bang and Mike went down first, and had extraordinary luck again as to their ground. They got first prize, and the brace of bitches belonging to Mr. Coryton won second honours over some middling ground.

THE CLINTON STAKES, with a 5*l.* cup added, for pointers, dogs or bitches, owners resident in Devon or Cornwall, 1*l.* 1*s.* each.

Mr. Bishop's l. and w Rock , } 3 yrs. 6 mos.	divided	{ Mr. Wippell's l. and w Wag , 2 yrs. 1 mo.
---	---------	---

Mr. Bishop's Rock and Mr. Wippell's Wag were down for some time; the latter made one or two good points, and then spoilt all by flushing and being otherwise unsteady. Rock behaved well, and was firm on his points, and the judges very properly gave him the best of it. Rock was afterwards put down with Duchess. Both found and showed careful training, but the lateness of the hour prevented a further trial, and the owners agreed to divide on even terms.

SHREWSBURY.

Judges.—Viscount Combermere; Sir Vincent Corbet; and the Hon. R. C. Hill.

These trials were held on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, April 28, 29, 30. The meet on Tuesday was fixed for Shawbury White Gates, on the estate of Sir Vincent Corbet, at 9.30 a.m., the rendezvous being about eight miles distant from Shrewsbury. Since the last year the amount of the entry fees had been doubled, and the result had been an almost similar increase in their numbers. The weather was fine, the sun shone brightly and hotly, and as the wind came away from the south and east, it made the scent very bad, for in consequence of the long continued drought and absence of rain, the ground was hard and baked, so that even the aged dogs were often at fault. There was a great deal of covert, the fields of clover particularly being very thick and luxuriant. The proceedings commenced at a quarter to ten with Marquis beat Riot.

Drake II. beat Mallard.

Sam beat Marquis.
Grace II. beat Sam.

III.

1st, Grace II.
2nd, Drake II.
3rd, Mallard.

The first brace to be slipped were Dott and Marquis, but they found nothing in a large field of thin wheat, and as Dott chased a plover, they were soon taken up.

Mike then met Riot, and the latter pointed a brace well in some seeds, Mike backing at a considerable distance; the latter then chased some birds, and the flag then went up in token of Riot's victory.

Sam and Doncaster were the next down, and the latter stood well, Sam backing; but the birds had previously risen. Sam then got a good point under a hedge, Doncaster backing; Sam next pointed birds well in good style, Mr. Whitehouse's dog backing him, and won.

Soon after Grace II. and Rous were down, the latter flushed badly, and Grace II. then found birds. Rous then behaved well at a hare, but soon afterwards flushed birds. Grace II. then made a false point, but subsequently mended matters by standing birds in good style and won. Mallard then competed with Drake II., and the latter was not long in making a point. Mallard then dropped well to a hare, and his opponent stood some birds well. After both had shown considerable pace, and Mallard chased a hare, and then flushed birds, both were taken up.

Beau and Daisy were then put down, but were taken up almost immediately, as they had both chased a hare.

Marquis and Riot next tried conclusions, but as the latter made a false point and broke fence, Marquis won at once.

Drake II. and Mallard were then put down again, and the first named took a good point, and drew on his birds. Subsequently he showed a great inclination to potter, and made several false points, but Mallard flushing, Drake won.

Marquis and Sam were then tried, and the former ran up birds badly, and left his opponent to meet Grace II. Sam also ran into birds, but dropped well; he then pointed a single bird in good style, and the two were taken up. The judges then conferred together for a short time, and placed Grace II. first, Drake II. second, and Mallard third.

Rector beat Carch.
Bang beat Beau.

Cob beat Noble.
Bang beat Brighton.

III.

1st, Rector.
2nd, Bang.
3rd, Cob.

After lunch the All-aged Pointer Stakes Trial commenced, with an easy defeat of Quail by Carch. Dan and Rector were the next brace, and the latter very soon took a point in rare style. Dan, whose pace was good, twice pointed false, and the brace were taken up. Cob and Appleby next tried conclusions, when the former stood a pheasant in good style, Appleby backing him; the same thing happened again, and Appleby then flushed badly; Cob soon after this followed his example, but getting another point, won. Noble and Dick were then down together, and the former made a false point; but his opponent, the last named, though very stiff from rheumatism, found well, and then flushed a pheasant; Mr. Whitehouse's dog, who had just recovered from mange, not doing anything, but he nevertheless won the trial. Bang was soon left in possession of the field by Don committing a grave error, and Brighton and Mr. Bevan's Drake were then put down. Brighton made a good point, and drew on his birds well, the other not backing; the two then owned birds almost together, but Brighton being slightly in front, had the point first, and won. Carch, when competing with Rector, flushed badly, the little black and white dog behaving splendidly, he then got a good point, and won.

Some birds rose in front of Noble and Cob, who were the next brace, and settled a short distance ahead of them, when Noble found them well. Cob then pointed in good style, Noble backing, and the former won. Bang made short work of Beau by taking a splendid point, the latter, nevertheless, backing him; Beau then drew on birds, which got up wild nearly forty yards off, and he was then ordered up. Brighton and Cob were down for some time but found nothing. Bang and Brighton were next slipped, and Bang pointed false, Brighton backing; Bang then committing the same fault again, and Brighton flushed birds. Bang getting another point. The latter then met Cob, who pointed, Mr. Price's dog backing him, the birds having run through the hedge: the latter soon afterwards broke fence, and they were then taken up. The judges then placed the dogs as follows: Rector, first; Bang, second; and Cob, third.

Grecian Bend and Ruth were the first brace down for the Aged Pointer Stake, and Grecian Bend made three false points, one of which her opponent backed; they both behaved tolerably well, dropping at a hare, and were then taken up. Citadel and Bride then contended, and distinguished themselves by running a course after a lame hare and killing it. Grecian Bend and Ruth were then put down again, and, as the former found a brace well, Ruth backing her, she won the prize. This ended the first day's proceedings at a few minutes to seven o'clock, the birds not having being very plentiful, and the scent most indifferent.

Wednesday.

The meet for the second day was at Moreton Corbet Ruins at the same time as on Tuesday, about two miles further from Shrewsbury. The weather was as fine as before, the wind coming from the same quarter, but for the first hour or so the scent was a trifle better than on the first day. The sport commenced with Ginx's Baby and Gento were the first brace down, and the former very soon found a hare and Gento some birds, but though the two worked tolerably well together they seemed rather to potter. Gento got another good point, and his mate backing him well they were taken up. Ruby and Druid were the next brace and they did their work very well, hunting independently and quartering their ground in good style. Ruby first pointed a pheasant in the middle of the field, and Druid, not seeing her did not back; both then dropped well to two hares, but Druid almost directly afterwards flushed a brace of birds and seemed inclined to chase. Ruby then made a grand point under the hedge, and Druid backed from a long distance; they were then taken up, the style in which they did their work having created a very favourable impression. Leda and Laura were next slipped, and Leda, going at a great pace, owned birds and turned sharply, raising a cloud of dust; they then immediately rose, and Leda dropped at once, but Laura did not go down as soon as she ought to have done. The two then quartered their ground in capital style, going at a clipping pace and acting independently. Laura then pointed a lapwing in a grass field, and subsequently a brace of birds in a hollow, Leda not backing until put down by Mr. Buckell. They were then taken into a field of rough stuff where Laura started a hare and chased it, taking Leda with her. Mars and Drake II. were then down together, but as the former was very stiff they were soon taken up by their breaker, Armstrong. Rock and Bess II. were the next brace, and they did better work than their kennel companions. Rock at first made a false point, Bess not backing at once although she subsequently did so. Rock again made a similar mistake, and Bess then stood birds very staunchly, having to wait a long while for Armstrong, who was far off; when he got near her they were gone, as they had run a good deal, but they subsequently rose some distance off. Rock then made a good point and Bess backed, but she shortly afterwards flushed badly, and they were taken up. Dan and Riot did not distinguish themselves much, as they flushed two or three times, and were soon taken up. Duke and Sam next went down, and followed one another about the field in which they were slipped. They both dropped to a brace of birds which rose near them, and Sam then flushed a brace, Duke not dropping, and they were taken up. Noble and Ruth were down a long time, but did not do any very good work. Mallard and Beau were down in some thick seeds, and quartered their ground splendidly, working very independently. But Mallard soon made a false point. This he repeated, and then found birds, of which he hardly seemed certain at first, but the other backed him well. Mallard again found a brace, and once more made a false point, and the two were then taken up. Bruce and Rose were sent off in a very large field of thick clover, and Bruce almost immediately found a brace well, Rose backing him from afar. She then owned birds which she appeared to flush, and although she hardly seemed certain of them, she nevertheless dropped well. Bruce then ran up birds, and the dogs were taken up. Carch and Citadel were the next brace, and they pointed well under a hedge in some rough stuff near a small stream, from whence a brace of birds had risen when the judges entered the field. Carch then pointed birds well under a bush, the other backing; this they repeated twice in the next field—a very large one—and did good work, quartering their ground well, and behaving as a brace should do. Ranger and Mozart came next, and the latter at once ran behind his breaker, and seemed disinclined to work at all, whilst his kennel companion was quartering the field in grand style and at a great pace; the latter ultimately made a steady point several hundred yards off, and it was some time before Mozart would back him. It was with some difficulty that his keeper could get Ranger to move, as he had to lift him up from the ground; but ultimately he went on slowly, and a single bird rose a long way—nearly forty yards—from where he had pointed. Bang and Mike were next down, and they did their work well, although Mike flushed a bird, to which he dropped instantly. He then pointed whence a bird had risen, Bang backing, and they were then taken up. Subsequently—after lunch—they were again put down, and Mike pointed, Bang backing him at the far side of the field, an immense way off; they then found another brace, and were taken up. Don and Duke were the last of the braces, but the former, though he pointed where a brace of birds had just got up, chased a hare, and they were taken up. Bruce and Rose now went down for a second essay, Bruce making a grand point, which Rose backed; quartering their ground well they did some very pretty work. Bruce, however, made a false point; he then stood again, and Rose backed him, though she seemed half inclined to take his point from him; they then moved on, when Bruce again became staunch and found a bird. Bang and Mike were then tried again, and though they were taken into a field down wind, they were soon at the end of it, quartering it up wind of their own accord. Mike made a good point at the bottom of the field, and they were ordered up; but just after the word was given Mike broke fence. The judges then placed them in the following order: Bang and Mike first, Bruce and Rose second, and Druid and Ruby third, a decision which caused considerable discussion in the field, as it was the general opinion that Mr. Llewellyn's brace, and Mr. Lloyd Price's pointers, Carch and Citadel, were worthy of first and second places. It was half-past three o'clock before the braces were finished, so that they took nearly five hours to be run off.

Romp beat Norah.
Druid beat Romp.

Rake beat Diamond.
Druid beat Norah.

1st, Rake.
2nd, Druid.
3rd, Diamond.

Romp and Sybil were the first down, and both ran up birds. Romp, however, then stood a brace in good style, and Sybil directly afterwards put up a hare, and chased it across two fields, showing very great speed. Rake pointed a pheasant in good style, and, as Fly did nothing, she was taken up. Sam and Dinah were next tried, and, as Sam pointed false, pointed a lark, and chased a hare, Dinah won easily. Fan and Peg were down a long time, and found nothing, neither of them appearing to know much of their business. Diamond, who was down with Kate, showed very good form, and got over the ground at a great pace, being a first-rate mover. He stood some birds in capital form, and had no difficulty in disposing of Kate. British and Queenie were the next two, and the latter, a very merry goer, opened the ball by flushing twice badly; but she very soon afterwards made up for it by turning sharply when running down wind, and making a splendid point at some birds. She then again flushed badly, and, as her opponent did nothing, won easily. Druid and Bloom next contended, and it was thought that the former, from his meritorious performance in the braces, would prove an easy winner. This, however, turned out not to be the case. The two were slipped in some rough stuff, when Druid at once started off at a great pace, and ran up some birds, which Bloom was half inclined to point, when they rose. Bloom then made a false point, which Druid backed, and subsequently she flushed a brace after another false point. Druid next flushed a brace down wind, and bloom made a false point, which he backed, and they were then taken up. Ruin and Viscount were let go in a meadow near a small stream, and Viscount soon flushed some birds, Ruin behaving well; the latter then got a good point, and won. Norah and Ruby, a small black and tan, who did her work in very good style indeed, then competed, and each pointed false, the last-named committing the same error twice subsequently, though she seemed to be working on the scent of birds which had risen. Romp then tried the mettle of his kennel companion Rake, and pointed a hare, the latter doing nothing, but they were taken up very quickly. Diamond was then put down with Dinah, and the latter flushed birds, Diamond not dropping, but as the latter could not find any birds, he won by his opponent's demerits. Kate and Queenie then tried conclusions, and though Kate put up birds and Queenie did the same, yet as the latter chased she was easily beaten. Bloom, Druid, and one or two others were tried again, but, it being a quarter to eight o'clock, and nearly dark, the following five were left in to compete again on Thursday: Rake, Romp, Norah, Druid, and Diamond.

Thursday.

The meet on this day was about nine miles from Shrewsbury, and close to Grimshill, which is not far from Wem.

Proceedings commenced with the final ties for the Setter Puppy Stakes, and Norah and Romp were the first down. Romp made a point, Norah backing prettily some distance off, and, although there were no birds, some, which had probably run, rose twenty yards off. Romp then found a single bird, and soon afterwards, whilst steadying herself for a point, put up a brace of birds; but it was hardly a flush. Rake and Diamond then competed, the latter quartering his ground admirably, and going at a tremendous pace. Rake made a false point, and Diamond would not back him; but soon afterwards he made a capital point at a brace in good style, and Diamond refused to back. Druid and Romp were then put down, and, as the latter flushed birds badly at the bottom of a field, she was taken up; and Druid and Norah competed. The latter pointed false, and Druid backed; but birds were put up by the judges in the direction to which she had been pointing. Norah pointed, and moved on, and Druid then stood where she had pointed before; she backed him; and Mr. Buckell, in walking down to Druid, put up a brace of birds. This ended the trial, and the judges placed the dogs as follows: Rake first, Druid second, and Diamond third.

Ranger beat Rob Roy, and won; and Rob Roy beat Ginx's Baby and Flax, and took second prize.

Marvel and Rob Roy were put down together, and the former was not long in running up a brace. Rob Roy then stood some birds which had run, and Marvel backed him, the latter, when Rob Roy left his point, standing staunchly close under the hedge. Rob Roy next flushed a brace, and Marvel then ran up a single bird. Flax and Ranger were the next brace, and the former had not been down many minutes before he flushed a brace. He quartered his ground well, but had neither the style nor the pace of Ranger. In the next field they were both racing crosswind, and Ranger flushed a brace, neither of them offering to drop when the birds rose; Ranger then made a false point, which Flax was not inclined to back until put down by Mr. Buckell; Flax then made a false point near a hedge, but Ranger was too far off to see him. In the next field Ranger, who was in front of Flax, pointed staunchly, and was immediately backed by Flax, who stood so well that he seemed to be pointing; the birds rose a few yards behind Ranger, and not very far from Flax, so that the performance on both sides was a good one; Flax then pegged a brace under a hedge in capital style, and Ranger, coming up, backed him well. This ended the trial between these two, which was a much nearer one than many imagined would be the case. Rock and Ginx's Baby were then slipped, and Rock made a false point, Ginx backing a very long way off; Rock again made a false point, and Ginx was guilty of flushing, and also of false pointing. On their being taken into another field, Rock made three more false points, and Ginx backed him well each time, and in the end Ginx won. Lord Downe's Rock and Mr. Webley's Don then tried conclusions; the former pointed false, the latter taking no notice, and after Lord Downe's had stood to two larks they were taken up. The next trial was looked forward to with great interest, as the meeting of Mr. Statter's celebrated dog Rob Roy and Mr. Macdona's Ranger was thought likely to prove a great treat. Rob Roy, as soon as he was slipped, galloped off to the far side of the field, and pointed under the hedge in front of three judges, who were riding towards where he stood. Ranger at the same time was going fast up the field to the left of the judges, as he had not observed that Rob Roy was down, and seemed making for a pond in front of him. He then ran up a bird, and whilst steadying himself another rose in front of him, at which he dropped.

Ranger was at the conclusion of this trial adjudged the winner of the first prize, Ginx's Baby and Rob Roy next competed, and the latter got a good point, and Ginx backed him well at a long distance, but drew on, and actually went in front of Rob Roy, and took his point—a piece of misbehaviour of which we have never known Ginx previously guilty; Rob Roy then ran into a brace, and Ginx was taken up, and Flax was then put down. The two of them ran into a brace, and as Flax was nearest, it was probably more his fault than Rob Roy's, but the latter at the time seemed inclined to race; Flax proved insubordinate, and would not drop until put down by Mr. Buckell. Rob Roy then got a very good point, and was well backed by Flax, who soon after flushed a single bird; this decided the second place, and Ranger took the first, and Rob Roy the second prize.

Leda beat Bess and Daisy and won, Daisy being second.

Guy and Leda were first down, and the former ran up a brace, a fault which Leda likewise committed, but her pace and style were so much superior that she won easily. Bess II. and Nell then met, but, as the latter made two false points, and there was a flush in which both were to blame, Bess II. won. Daisy had no difficulty in disposing of Belle, and then Rose and Ruby met. Rose chased a hare, and then pointed twice, and Ruby backed her. Leda and Bess II. were next tried together, and the former made a very good point, Bess II. backing; the latter then flushed a brace, and directly afterwards chased a hare and lost. Leda and Daisy then met, and Daisy pointed twice false, and Leda found a brace of birds in excellent style, and the dogs were taken up, it being the general impression that Leda had won; but one of the judges was not satisfied, and they were put down again, and, as Daisy flushed a brace badly, all doubts were removed, and Leda was placed first and Daisy second.

CHAMPION STAKES, a piece of plate, for the best pointer and setter, winner of all ages.

Rector beat Grace II.

Ranger beat Leda.

Ranger beat Rector, and won.

Grace II. and Rector were put down in a grass field, and the latter almost immediately found a landrail in grand style, the bitch not backing. They were then taken to a field of seeds, when Grace II. got a point on the side of a hill, but it seemed to be false, although a single bird subsequently rose after the judges had gone on. Rector then made a grand point in splendid style, the birds being a long way from him. He then got under a hedge and made a point, where there then was nothing, although a hare had been started thence about five minutes before. He then made another false point, Grace backing in good style, and the two were then taken up. Ranger and Leda were next turned down down in a thin field of wheat, and Ranger dropped well to a hare; a brace of birds then got up some distance in front of Leda, who dropped well. She then made a false point in the next field, and Ranger backed her, but she was not long in discovering her mistake. A hare then got up, and Leda dropped well, and then a minute after pointed staunchly just about the line along which the hare had run, and as Mr. Buckell thought she was pointing the hare, he drew her on, and she flushed a brace. Ranger then behaved very well at a hare, and directly afterwards turned round sharp and pointed, Leda backing him, but there was nothing. He then pointed whence a brace of birds had just risen, but they were probably disturbed by the judges, and not by the dog. Leda was then taken up, having performed very well, but as she was in milk she did not by any means show her true form, although the more work she had the better she went. Ranger and Rector then went down to decide which was to be the champion dog of the meeting. Ranger, going a great pace, pulled himself up sharp, and, turning round, stood a brace splendidly, Rector backing him in good style. The former again quickly found a brace, and did not give his opponent, who backed him well, any chance, and Ranger was awarded the prize, which he won in grand form.

After Wednesday Mr. Bevan acted for Lord Combermere, and subsequently to two o'clock on Thursday, Sir Vincent Corbet and Mr. Bevan were the only two left, as Mr. Hill had to go away.

SLEAFORD.

UNDER THE RULES AND MANAGEMENT OF THE KENNEL CLUB.

Judges.—Mr. S. E. Shirley, M.P., and Mr. E. Calcraft.

These trials were held on the estates of the Marquis of Bristol, at Sleaford, in Lincolnshire, under the management of Mr. G. Lowe, Secretary to the Kennel Club.

An influential local committee were in office, and the whole affair was under the patronage, rules, and management of the Kennel Club. One of the judges in each division, i.e., pointers or setters and retrievers, was selected from the committee of the Kennel Club, the other in each case being a local sportsman of celebrity. A new system of judging was also advertised to be tried for the first time at this meeting, so many points being allowed to a dog for a find, more or less according to the merit of the point, and so many deducted for each piece of bad behaviour.

The scale of points by which dogs were judged is here given in its entirety.

1. The number of points to decide a trial shall not be less than twenty-five; it may, however, be more than this number, but in this case the number must be specified in the conditions of the stake. As soon as the twenty-five [or more] points have been made, including the good and bad points made by both dogs, the dogs shall be taken up, and the dog which has the most good points, or the fewest bad ones, after deducting his bad or good points, as the case may be, wins.

2. Every point at game to count four, a natural back two, and if drawn to the other dog or dropped, one only.

3. If a dog rushes right into his game he loses four; but if he finds it first, points, and then rushes in, he gains nothing for the find, and loses two for the flush.

4. A dog seeing the point and refusing to back loses two; and if he rushes into his opponent's point he loses four if he points and the birds do not rise, and six if he flushes them.

5. A dog not dropping to game loses one, but it does not otherwise detract from the merit of a find; and in the same way he can lose one for not dropping to shot; but he does not lose one for each fault, providing it is simply not dropping to wing or shot. If, however, he runs in the moment the birds are on the wing or the gun is fired, he loses all the merit of the find—one for not dropping, four for chasing, and is out of the stake if he chases feather out of the field. Hares or rabbits to count the same as feather, both as regards merits and faults, except in cases of flushing, which are not noticed in case of fur.

6. A gun-shy dog, running clean off at the discharge of the gun, to be put out of the stake directly; and if a dog blinks, to lose six for the first fault, and is out of the stake if it is repeated.

7. Every false point which the dog does not discover to be false, and move on without direction from his master, shall count two demerit.

8. Except in the case of false pointing and running up birds, every number allotted as penalty shall be doubled on repetition of the fault, and the last number given for that fault shall on every repetition of it be still further doubled.

9. Whatever the dogs may do after the settled number of points are obtained shall not count.

10. In case both dogs are found equal, the judges shall [unless the owners come to some agreement to draw one of the dogs] select a further number of points to be obtained by the two; the number selected to be not less than ten.

11. The result of the points only to affect each separate brace; and when the stake has been gone through, the respective winners to run off the ties according to their order on the card, and the winners of these ties to be tried on until two winners only remain in, when they must be tried to decide the actual stake, the beaten dog in the final to be considered second; or owners have the option of dividing prior to a final when the first and second money must be added together and equally divided.

[The results obtained by the use of these rules were not satisfactory, and it was found that they required much alteration to make them work well. There was a discussion in the Field paper, between the Editor and the official members of the Kennel Club, but the letters and correspondence in that paper and Bell's Life in London, clearly showed that no blame attached to any members of the Kennel Club for unfairness in the management of the Field Trials. An exhaustive criticism of these rules will be found in the Field paper of the 26th of September, 1874, from which the following report is taken almost verbatim.—ED.]

The meet was at Boughton, a farm about four miles from Sleaford, and precisely at eleven a.m., the first brace of setters—Mr. Lewellin's Samson and Kite, red Irishmen—were turned off on a rough fallow. At first they seemed to somewhat hang together, but soon separated, and continued to work independently enough. Samson opened the ball by pointing, Kite backing well; Mr. Lort, who handled the gun, went up to them, but no game appeared. This was, to all intents and purposes, a false point; but the judges, perhaps not liking to be too severe at first, omitted to penalise, otherwise this should have scored two against Samson (who was decorated with the red collar) for the false point, and two in favour of his companion, for the "back." In the next field, a stubble, Samson followed a hare until stopped by hand, seeming inclined to puzzle on the scent; but on the next appearance of pussy he behaved rightly enough. In the third field, again a large stubble, two birds rose wild to Kite, who works prettily, feeling for the wind. Then a covey rose wild in front of Samson, who took up the scent, and owned the birds that had just risen, Kite very steadily backing. A hare got up behind the dog, which was evidently very tempting, but Mr. Buckell's hand was sufficient to check any great imprudence. Then in the corner of the same field both dropped well to hand on fur, but incurred the penalty of one, as the action was not natural.

We now changed our ground towards some roots, the beating of which resulted in three false points, two by Samson, who on one occasion led gun and judges nearly the length of the field. An hour and forty minutes had now been spent without one shot, a slow brace like this seeming only to drive the birds round them in roots, without much assisting the gun. In the next stubble Samson again seemed to point false, but, as birds rose some distance off, and Kite again backed capitally, they were credited with the find; and the requisite number of points (twenty-five) having now, 'twixt bad and good, been obtained, we with some relief passed on to the next brace, leaving the "Paddies" with a total of sixteen good marks against nine bad ones—in other words, a total score of seven. Laura and Druid, also belonging to Mr. Llewellyn, now made their appearance, the former a lemon and white bitch, sister to Leda, and the latter a very handsome black and white dog, showing a strong trace of the Laverack strain—in fact, the genuine field trial breed. This brace, rather unfortunately for them, were put down at once in a mangold field of about five acres. Druid went off with the lead—indeed, throughout he proved himself the faster and more stylish of the pair, but ran up birds, one of which came round to the gun (the first shot of the day), while Laura was standing. This he followed by a find, giving the gun again a chance, and directly afterwards drew to birds in the corner of the field, but did not make them out, and was treated, we suppose, according to the rules, to six bad marks in consequence. The judges considered it a decided "blink." This little field had held so many birds that the score was up, and Laura and Druid retired with the curious score of three points to the bad, that dog, although he showed good style and pace, being accredited with all the penalties.

At 1.40 Mr. Lloyd Price's pointers, Drake (late Mr. Garth's) and Carch, were started at one end of a large stubble field, the other being in mangolds, and very grandly they quartered and beat their ground. There was nothing in it, however; so, after a walk of a mile or so, towards lunch a stubble was tried, Carch taking a good point near the bottom hedge, birds rising on all sides of him, one of which towered to the shot and fell in the next field, the veteran doing admirably his part of "backer." The next point was in a corner of the said turnips by Drake at a rabbit, the old dog being kept some time on his point to give his companion an opportunity of showing his steadiness behind, which he did not altogether do in a satisfactory manner. A false point from Carch, and a ditto from Drake, when his coadjutor ran right in front of him, apparently taking no notice, rather altered the aspect of affairs, and spoilt the previous good score of this brace, who were much fancied to win. Matters terminated by Carch first owning and then deliberately pushing up a covey; Drake not mending matters by refusing to back till addressed by name. Their score now standing at fourteen good points and ten bad, or a total of four to the good, we went to lunch; after which Drake found a brace, and added four points to the good, but only one of these was counted, as the requisite total had been obtained. We then essayed another Welsh brace—puppies this time—Beau and Mallard, both sons of old Drake. Beau commenced by starting and dropping to a hare, then flushing some birds unseen by the judges. Some eight or nine hares were on foot in this field—a large stubble—the youngsters displaying great command of temper and good working. We next tried a piece of mangold, which was not beaten with the mechanical precision displayed by the last brace, where, on Mr. Lort doubling up a casual hare, both young pointers dropped well to shot, Mallard immediately afterwards incurring the penalty for not down-charging to a shot fired at some birds walked up by the crowd. Beau in the next stubble took two capital points; Mallard to one of them backing him well at first, but changing his mind, which cost him two bad marks. A lot of fur was all this time moving about. The last point of all, again taken by Beau, who was far more than an average puppy, was spoilt by his half-brother declining to let well alone, by flushing the birds for him; and this terminated the performance of the young Drakes. Score: Beau, ten good points and one bad; Mallard, eight good and six the reverse; total, eleven to the good.

The celebrated Ranger and an animal styled Lucy were next thrown off for a short time in a stubble, where Ranger narrowly escaped a flush, and then treated us to the best and longest point of the day, going with his old dash and vigour; but, being hampered by the extremely eccentric conduct of his so-called partner, who chased hares, flushed birds, and did everything that a setter should not do, this brace was quickly withdrawn by their keeper, and the last on the list, Mr. Whitehouse's beautiful lemon and white pointers, Beau (a noted prize taker) and Doncaster, were, at ten minutes to five, called up. Worked by their sportsmanlike owner, they went off in very pretty style, Doncaster slightly leading; and, feathering for a moment to a false scent, they quickly showed great steadiness on fur. Doncaster broke fence once, but this was no fault under the new system—a rabbit hustle under the hedge affording, at this juncture, the lookers-on intense amusement. Again the brace dropped well to a hare, and it did seem hard that a dog, though penalised for not recognising "pussy," should gain nothing for steady behaviour when she tried his steadiness.

A fine covey then rose away from the dogs, one of whom on catching the scent made a grand point, and added six good marks to their benefit. Doncaster in the next field unluckily pushed up a bird, Beau dropping well to wing, and then showed a slight amount of unsteadiness, creeping in to and disturbing two birds, of whose whereabouts he had evidently a strong suspicion. Doncaster again, in some rape, was a little too hasty with his birds, which ended the affair, and penalised him two points under rule three.

Mr. Lloyd Price's Beau and Mallard I. took the cup for the best brace, pointers or setters, and 11l.; Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's Samson and Kite taking 11l. for the best brace of setters.

The Sleaford Stakes next attracted our attention, the only entries being Mr. Lloyd Price's liver and white bitch Queenie, and Mr. Purcell Llewellyn's red dog Samson. These were turned off in the same turnip field which had witnessed the conclusion of the brace stakes, Queenie soon making a false point, which was quickly taken from her by her opponent, who then, leaving his own point, vigorously chased a hare, declining to recognise the whistle, and flushing a bird in his wild career. A prompt castigation followed, and well he deserved it. The little bitch then ran into a bird, dropping naturally, but of course losing four. Changing to a stubble, she pointed some birds prettily, the dog rushing in front and flushing. This decided the matter, and Queenie secured the cup and first prize money, Samson being rewarded with two guineas.

THE LOCAL CUP, value 5l., presented by Mr. R. Lloyd Price, for pointers and setters belonging to residents in Lincolnshire, 1l. 1s. each; first prize, cup and 1l. 10s.; second prize, 15s.

Mr. T. Parry's w Shot (setter) beat Mr. S. Lowe's Venus (pointer).

Mr. S. Lowe's Juno (pointer) Mr. T. Parry's Shot.

1st, Juno.

2nd, Shot.

All three were as slow as Clumbers, and in the first heat between Mr. S. Lowe's Venus and Mr. T. Parry's Shot the award was given to the latter without making a single good point, the bitch scoring four for a point, and sixteen bad ones for chasing fur, &c., while the dog had only five bad ones. Shot was then put down with Mr. S. Lowe's Juno, who went a shade faster than her kennel companion. For a long time no score was made; at last the bitch showed a little unsteadiness at fur, and the dog got a point at a single bird, but, not standing steadily, was penalised. The bitch next set a rabbit, and the dog not backing her, four good points went up on the black board for her, and two bad ones for him. The score then stood, Juno 8—7; Shot 5—5. Consequently Juno was first, and Shot second.

Ranger beat Druid. Laura a bye.

III.

Laura beat Ranger, and took the cup; Ranger getting second prize.

When down with Druid, Lucy's pace and style of going were quite equal to his, if not superior. In commencing on a large stubble they had time to run off their wildness, no game being on it; but when put into seeds Druid flushed two coveys almost directly without dropping; Lucy at the same time refused to drop to shot. The dog next flushed a single bird, and after a somewhat unsatisfactory trial won. Shot (the local setter) now appeared to defend his county's fame against all England, who were represented by Laura. The old dog quickly scored 6 to the bad, Laura making a point (4), and losing 1 for not dropping to fur. Moving off to a piece of brush turnips, the bitch again found, and was not backed, after which she lost some points by flushing a covey; but the dog having scored 13 bad points, while she had 8 good minus 7 bad ones the award was of course in her favour.

Second Round.—Now came Ranger's turn to fight with Druid, the former having had a bye in the first round. They were at once put into turnips, and Ranger made his mark by a good find, Druid refusing to back him, and rushing into his game to take the point in addition. Ranger then flushed a single bird, to which he dropped, Druid refusing to do ditto. The score now stood on the black board: Ranger, 8—1 for not dropping; Druid, 8 bad. A stubble field produced a find for Ranger (this time a hare), Druid backing him, and both dropping well to fur. Two fine stretches tried their pace in favour of Ranger. The score now reached 23, and Ranger standing to the scent of some birds which had just risen, the full amount was made up as follows: Ranger, 16—1; Druid, 2—10. This was the only instance in which more than 25 marks were put up on the board, according to rule 9. Laura's bye, as in all other cases, was not run.

Deciding trial.—Ranger and Laura: In a piece of seeds Ranger made a false point; but a hare having been seen to go away by the keeper, no penalty was awarded; soon afterwards, however, he incurred one for the same fault, and the bitch, stopping to the hand and voice (though not backing), according to rule got one to the good. A false point, similar to Ranger's first, was made by the bitch, and also treated in the same way. The score now stood: Laura, 5 good; Ranger, 4 good, 2 bad. Moving to some turnips, Laura found two hares, Ranger made a distant point, which turned out to be guinea fowl, and for this, not being game, he could not score. At the end of this field Laura made an unmistakable false point, and the score was then added up as follows, viz., Laura, 13 good, 5 bad; Ranger, 4 good, 4 bad. Laura thus got the cup.

BRISTOL STAKES, with Cup value 10*l.*, presented by the Kennel Club, for single all-aged pointers, at 3*l.* 3*s.* each; first prize, cup and 8*l.* 17*s.*; second, 4*l.* 8*s.*

Mr. R. Lloyd Price's Carch...	„	Mr. Salter's bk w d Chang II.

Mr. Whitehouse's dog had already appeared to advantage last year at Bala, but he had vastly improved, and is now a very taking animal, both when standing and when going. His defeat of poor old Drake was most complete—beginning with “wiping his eye” by getting a point over ground which the old dog had just passed. Drake then made a false point, well backed by M'Gregor; and soon afterwards, after standing to a covey, he went on and pushed them up. After this two more false points settled poor Drake, and the score was made up as follows: M'Gregor, 11 good; Drake, 11 bad; on which the latter was drawn by his owner, as his chance was out. Chang II. and Carch.—The latter began by making two good points, Chang II. being credited with one which he got after a very long draw on some rough fallow. Carch made another point, but, not keeping his stern steady, Chang's refusal to back was forgiven. This brought the score quickly to Chang II., 6—2; Carch, 12—1; the flag going up for Carch.

At 5 p.m., the third brace, Mr. T. Smith's Como and Mr. Whitehouse's Beau were put down in some large stubbles, twenty-five to thirty acres in size, the first of which was beaten fruitlessly, a large covey rising wild near the bottom hedge before the pointers got a chance at them. In the next, Como almost found a bird, dropping well to wing; but there being no half and half measures, at least at this juncture, the flush was recorded to his disadvantage. Neither of this brace had pace sufficient for these big fields, which required high rangers; so we were glad to follow some birds which had been marked down, in hopes that the roots might enable us to “tottle” up the requisite twenty-five. After a little beating, Como discovered part of the covey, one of which was slain, making a meritorious point; Beau requiring “vocal assistance” in down charging, Mr. Shirley's retriever Paris being here brought into requisition.

Como then pointed a rabbit at the end of the turnips, dropping to flick of the whip, then, while Mr. Smith's dog was making up his mind as to whether he would stand a bird or not, the “Dandy” settled matters by coming to his assistance, pointing for a second and then flushing, which subjected him to the dubious penalty of rule 3. The death of a couple of casual birds, well dropped by Mr. Whitehouse, who had taken the gun, both dogs dropping naturally and instantaneously to shot, ended the day's work, it being agreed, the birds being fickle and the hour 6 p.m., to postpone further operations until the morrow.

Mr. Whitehouse's Macgregor beat Como and Carch, and won; Como taking the second prize.

Second Ties.—Macgregor and Carch were turned off in the same stubble, which saw the end of Beau and Como, a beautiful one for a fast brace such as these turned out to be. Mac commenced by half finding some birds, Carch in turning to him, putting them up, which scored him four to the bad. Nothing more of any consequence took place in this field except that Macgregor dwelt for some time on the scent of a hare that had risen before him. We then got into a long stubble full of game where the brace commenced by flushing a hare, neither condescending to drop; immediately afterwards Carch again pointed fur, Mr. Whitehouse's dog perfect behind. Carch then stood prettily where a covey had been seen to rise, Mac again doing his duty well. This was not scored by the judges. Mac a minute afterwards stood well to birds, the Welsh dog backing him right enough, and a minute afterwards the bold Scotchman stood firm in the right hand corner of this prolific stubble where birds had been seen to rise. Four points were scored to him for this, though Carch for the same performance just before went begging.

Score on the board: Macgregor, 12 good points and 4 bad; Carch, 2 good, 6 bad; which with the final point allowed to Macgregor, made up the requisite 25.

Macgregor then proceeded to tackle Como, making a false point to start with, Como's owner not thinking the two points for backing worth trying for; Como then scored a point, two large coveys rising, one well in front of and the other close to him, Mac backing well; then on a small stubble the local dog dropped to hand to a hare, then well to wing at birds rising twenty yards ahead of him. Macgregor, on a rough fallow, got a pretty point, and then on entering a small bit of turnips Como routed a bird out from between a spectator's legs. Several false points occurred in this little bit of roots, which were ignored by the judges who wished for something decisive to go upon, and were at length gratified for, after a rabbit and weasel had been picked out from a point made by Mac at a hedge, he stood and drew grandly up to a large lot of birds in some man-golds, which gave him the cup and 8*l.* 17*s.*

BOSTON STAKES, with cup value 5*l.* presented by the Committee of the Boston Dog Show, for puppy pointers, 3*l.* 3*s.*

Mr. Lloyd Price's Peg (a bye).

1st, Beau.

2nd, Romp.

We then, at 12.20, commenced the Boston Stakes for puppy pointers, Doncaster and Mallard being the first contestants; they half beat a large turnip field, when two casual birds were dropped, no end of time being now wasted in trying the retrievers. Mallard was the first to score, jumping a bit as the dead bird nearly hit him in the eye; then in a large stubble they were both penalised for a flush under a hedge, Mr. Price's dog being the most culpable; then both missed a covey which yielded two birds to the gun. Mallard then, thanks to the sharpness of his breaker, had a good chance at a marked down bird, which he found; Doncaster backing to voice. Nothing more happened before lunch, and Mr. Whitehouse, finding that by no possible combination could his dog win, withdrew his puppy. And having satisfied the inner man, we proceeded to test the merits of Beau and Romp, the latter a mean looking little thing. Looks are not everything though, as we soon found, for this little creature cut out the work at a tremendous pace; aye, and kept it up, too. Beau commenced badly by flushing in a fallow, but the birds could hardly be expected to lie, the bitch soon after refusing to drop to wing. She then found a hare, but lost one point by not dropping to shot, Beau making soon after a stiff false point, beautifully backed by the bitch, who, however, immediately after flushed in some rape, directly afterwards dropping well to a fox. Beau directly afterwards found a single bird in good form at the end of the rape, following this up with another find, the bitch just getting in to back before the bird rose. This made up the twenty-five points counting to the bitch for her last back, the two to which she was entitled bringing the score up to twenty-six, not allowable, although it certainly should be; however, the judges had got 26 stuck upon the board, and, declaring a tie, ordered ten more points to be made, which were run up by the bitch omitting to drop to fur, then standing a covey beautifully, and by Beau winding up with a long and meritorious point in some turnips. The owner of Beau admired the bitch's style so much that he withdrew his claim to second money, which Mallard or Peg was entitled to, and Romp went away with flying colours, having as nearly as possible polished off Belle's well-known son.

Queenie beat Kite.

III.

Queenie and Macgregor divided prize.

Beau scored first blood for a point of very dubious merit in thin swedes, one bird being, we thought, flushed by him while a runner was seen bolting down the furrow behind his back. No bird could now be got to lie, it being past half-past five. A little progress, was, however, made in the stake by Beau knocking up a covey in a large stubble, and, after finally and fruitlessly trying a piece of mangolds—where Kite made an obvious false point, Beau's breaker bringing him up to the back—we wended our weary way homeward, the score standing at one point in favour of the setter.

Saturday.

The running off of the unfinished tie between Beau (pointer) and Kite (setter) was announced on Friday night to commence at seven a.m. on Saturday morning; but it was eight o'clock before judges, competitors,

&c., were all in attendance. The pointer first caught the scent, standing a covey almost immediately he was slipped, Kite backing well at a long distance; but then, racing down wind, Beau unfortunately tumbled into a midst of a lot, and, of course, lost four points, Kite almost immediately finding a hare; the number was now up, and the red setter won the tie. The score, taking the previous evening's work into consideration, standing at Kite, 5—2; Beau, 10—8, a very close race, but the fast dog as usual cut his own throat. The next performers were Queenie (the winner of the Setter Puppy Stake) and Laura, the conqueror of Ranger, who few people expected to see appear again in the Champion Stake, thinking that she would rest upon her laurels, having obtained the long-coveted victory; however, there she was, and much better she worked, too, than at her previous appearances. Queenie got first point, turning sharp as she pegged her birds quite in old Drake's style, well backed by Laura; the puppy in the next field, a stubble, adding to her score by finding a single bird, which was most accommodating in the matter of "lying," and was secured by Mr. Buckell, who to-day shot as well as worked Mr. Llewellyn's dogs. Laura's turn came next, she "nosing" another "old bachelor" who was enjoying the morning sun, just beginning to break out "hot and strong," and making the partridges lie capitally, Queenie showing that her lessons with old Drake (or some other veteran) had not been thrown away by stiffening at once to her opponent's find. Laura then false-pointed in roots with "Ci Bach," as Queenie was addressed in the language of her adopted country, not seeing the find. This was followed up by a very long draw up to birds on a grass field by Mr. Llewellyn's representative. Queenie, who at the time was ranging on Laura's right, and never saw her; but, pursuing her course, caught the scent at a different angle, the two at this moment forming a pretty study for the artist. Both bitches behaved admirably during this trial, which was one of the prettiest at the meeting, and could we but always guarantee such field trials, they would be more popular than they are. The score at the finish was: Laura, 12—2; Queenie, 11, really 14 good marks: but of course the last three good points in her score could not benefit her, the requisite "pony" having been "mounted." The little Laverack, therefore, for the first and last time at the meeting, scored off her tie without a single bad mark; she would also have completely beaten her opponent under the old system for pace, style, nose, and range. Macgregor and Mallard, two pointers, for a change, next started in some excellent ground. Macgregor, who did not seem to be in yesterday's form, commenced by deliberately poking up a covey in the corner of a stubble field, Mallard not mending matters by making as deliberate a false point. Macgregor, by backing him, picked up a little of his losings; a smart rally at "fur" then took place, Mallard finding, and Mr. Whitehouse's dog backing, and a moment afterwards vice versa., Score: Macgregor, 7—5; Mallard, 6—7; Mallard's last "back" coming in too late to score. Queenie was then put down with Mr. Llewellyn's other representative Kite, whose work in the braces was, though slow, somewhat taking. The sun at this juncture beating violently down as in July, and destroying every particle of scent, may probably account for the bad work done by this brace, neither of whom worked up to their previous form. Queenie commenced the "list of offences under the act" by chasing pussy up to the hedge, which, being a very thick one, fortunately administered a "prick" to her conscience, and repressed such a suicidal tendency. She evidently, however, repented of this little faux pas, for another hare that she came across immediately afterwards was "fixed" straight enough. A false point was the puppy's next score. Kite, flying off with two good marks for the back, followed this up with four for some birds discovered in "greens," Queenie, not being much higher than an ordinary turnip top, not seeing her; so her character was neither bettered nor lowered in consequence. Kite now cut his own throat, running up first a covey, and then a single bird in the same root crop, losing eight points and the tie. Score: Queenie, 4—6; Kite, 6—9.

Queenie should have gone down with Macgregor, but a division was proposed and accepted.

The Retriever Stakes secured but few entries, and were won by Mr. Shirley's Paris and Peer.

PEDIGREES.

NOTE BY THE EDITOR.

In the present volume as far as regards Field trials the winners only of prizes in the various stakes have been classified, instead of every dog which has run, as in the last volume, but all performances of Field trials of dogs already entered in the Stud Book have been given.

Where no pedigree is given it may be fairly presumed that the dog's pedigree is not on record, as its absence here shows that it does not appear in any catalogue, and that the owner has not answered the circular letter sent to him respecting it.

SPRATT'S PATENT MEAT FIBRINE DOG CAKES.

From the reputation these Meat Fibrine Cakes have now gained, they require scarcely any explanation to recommend them to the use of every one who keeps a dog; suffice it to say they are free from salt, and contain "dates," the exclusive use of which, in combination with meat and meal, to compose a biscuit is secured to us by Letters Patent, and without which no biscuit so composed can possibly be a successful food for dogs. Price 22s. per cwt., carriage pd.; larger quantities 20s. per cwt., carriage pd. See Editorial Notice in The Field, 3rd June, 1871, page 458.

"Royal Kennels, Sandringham, Dec. 20, 1873.

"To the Manager of Spratt's Patent,

"Dear Sir,—In reply to your inquiry I beg to say I have used your biscuits for the last two years, and never had the dogs in better health. I consider them invaluable for feeding dogs, as they insure the food being perfectly cooked, which is of great importance.

"Yours faithfully,

"O. H. JACKSON."

"Holmbush House, Watford, Herts, April 7, 1870.

"Gentlemen,—For the last five or six years I have used Spratt's Patent Cakes, and have found them a very convenient and excellent food for dogs. I have great pleasure in giving you this testimonial; but the dogs which I have successfully exhibited at the principal shows are the best testimonials I think you can have.

"Yours obediently,

"FRANK ADCOCK."

"36, North Great George-street, Dublin, June 9th, 1874.

"Gentlemen,—Please to forward to my private residence, as above, 4cwt. of Dog Biscuits as before; let them be precisely the same as those supplied on all former occasions. I have much pleasure in bearing personal testimony to their suitability and general efficiency for Greyhounds, and in adding that my Greyhound, 'Royal Mary,' winner at Altcar of last year's Waterloo Plate, was almost entirely trained for all her last year's engagements upon them.

"Your obedient servant,

"WILLIAM J. DUNBAR, M.A."

"Fulwood, near Preston, Feb. 3rd, 1875.

"Gentlemen,—I have great pleasure in recommending your Patent Poultry and Game Meal, to exhibitors of poultry especially, as a first feed for the birds after a long railway journey. I can also confidently recommend the Meal to managers of Poultry Exhibitions as a first feed for the birds on their arrival at the Show. I have never seen a single case of crop sickness where the birds have had a first feed of your meal.

"Yours truly,

"RICHARD TEEBAY."

"North Petherton, Bridgewater, Sept. 8th, 1874.

"Sirs,—I enclose P.O.O. for bill, at the same time I must express the great satisfaction your Poultry Meal has given me since using it. I never had my chickens do so well, they seem to leave all other food for it, and independent of its being such a health producer, I think it is economical, a little going a long way. Be good enough to send me 3 cwt. more.

"Truly yours,

"GREENVILLE F. HODSON."
